RULES GOVERNING THE CONTEST

- I. One nomination coupon, good for 500 votes will be credited to each contestant nominated.
- II. A coupon good for one vote will appear in The Republican every morning for nine weeks. Each coupon in order to count must be voted before the expiration date printed thereon. If mailed on the expiration date the coupon will be valid.
- III. Ballots are issued on subscriptions according to the following schedule:

NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Daily and Sunday

Subscription.		Votes.
3 months .....	$ 2.00	500
6 months .....	4.00	1200
1 year .....	8.00	3000
2 years .....	16.00	7000
3 years .....	24.00	12,000

Sunday Only

1 year .....	2.50	600
2 years .....	5.00	1500

The number of votes given on old subscriptions is one-half of the above schedule.

IV. A vote bonus of 10,000 votes will be given on every club of four NEW yearly subscriptions or their equivalent (eight subs of six months each, two of two years each, etc.) during the period extending from the announcing of the contest (December 31st) to February 3rd. It is not necessary to wait until a full club is made up before sending in subscriptions. Send them in as they are secured. The bonus votes will be computed from the records of the contest department. This will be the only vote bonus given during the contest.

V. The first publication of the votes cast for the contestants will be made Sunday, January 14th. The votes will be counted and the standings of contestants announced after that date at least twice a week.

VI. No contestant will be permitted to cast more than 3000 votes over and above his (or her) nearest district competitor until February 21st, after which date he (or she) may cast as many votes as desired. Subscriptions should be turned in as soon as received by the contestant, who may hold the ballots issued on same until February 21st, and vote them at that date or later.

VII. No coupon or ballot will be sold for money or other consideration and can be obtained only by being clipped from The Arizona Republican or obtained through the regular subscription channels.

VIII. A board of responsible and disinterested business men will have exclusive control of the ballot box on the last day of the contest, and make the announcement of that day's voting.

IX. No employee, or close relative of an employee of The Arizona Republican will be eligible to enter this contest.

X. Contestants will enter from the district in which they live, and candidates moving from one district to another will be retained in the district in which first nominated.

XI. Candidates in one district are not competing with those in another district except for the grand prize.

XII. Votes cannot be transferred from one contestant to another.

XIII. Nomination of candidates may be made at any time previous to the last week of the contest. The Republican reserves the right to reject any nomination.

XIV. Contestants are not limited to any boundaries in securing votes or subscriptions.

XV. This contest will close at 10 p. m. Saturday, March 9, 1912.

XVI. An old subscriber is anyone to whom the paper was being regularly delivered (by mail or carrier) before January 1, 1912, and all other subscribers are called new; changing the name or delivery of a paper will not be considered creating a new subscriber. A person who occasionally buys a paper, but who during the contest pays for the delivery of the same, is a new subscriber.

XVII. No promise or agreement either written or verbal made by an employee, solicitor, or friend of a candidate which is different from the printed rules in The Arizona Republican will be recognized. The Contest Manager reserves the right to interpret the rules and regulations governing the contest and the "Board of Judges" will make final decision in case of controversy.
